The first sixty minutes

Playbook Section 2.1

WHEN	DO THIS	OWNER
0–10	1 Verify and name it. Two-line factual summary: what we know, who confirmed, what we do not know. 2 Protect people first. Communications never delays a life-safety action. 3 Call the Core Five by phone, not email.	Alert recipient · Ops/ HSE/CISO
10–20	4 Freeze. Legal hold. Pause scheduled posts. One named spokesperson only. 5 Insider lock. Do not trade, do not tip (T6). Start the insider log. 6 Start the decision log (T3).	Legal/Comms · CoSec · Scribe
20–40	7 Materiality screen with the decision tree. If it might be price-sensitive, treat it as such until counsel says otherwise. 8 Market open? If material and you cannot announce now, consider a trading-halt request. 9 Convene the CMT.	Disclosure Cttee · CEO + CoSec · Crisis Lead
40–60	10 Start the regulatory clocks. One owner per clock. 11 Notify the Board: Chair and ARC Chair, by phone. 12 First words. Bursa first if material. 13 Set the next update time (every 60–120 min) and say so.	Legal · Crisis Lead · Head of Comms

The Core Five and decision rights

Playbook Sections 2.2, 6, 9

#	ROLE	ON THE FIRST CALL BECAUSE
1	Crisis Lead (CEO / MD or delegate)	Single accountable decision-maker
2	Company Secretary	Controls Bursa LINK submissions and the regulatory record
3	Head of Legal / General Counsel	Privilege, legal exposure, regulator posture
4	Head of Corporate Communications	Statements, media, social, languages
5	CFO / Head of Investor Relations	Market impact, lenders, ratings, shareholders

Nobody needs permission to raise the alarm. Any one of the Core Five may declare a minimum Level 2 on their own authority.

Bursa first, everyone else second. For a material event: Bursa LINK announcement, then press release, website and social, then staff note, then analyst calls, then stakeholder letters. Life-safety instructions are never delayed.

NAMES FOR THIS QUARTER

Severity levels and who convenes

Playbook Sections 7.2 to 7.3

L1 Issue	L2 Incident	L3 Crisis	L4 Critical
Contained, local, low visibility. Head of function.	Notable, manageable with HQ support. Core Five, virtual.	Threatens brand, licence or share price. Full CMT; Chair told.	Existential or systemic. Board convened; advisers on site.

ESCALATE IF ANY IS TRUE

- A journalist, regulator, enforcement agency or politician has asked.
- Someone has been killed or seriously harmed.
- Personal data may have left your control.
- Unexplained price or volume movement, or Bursa has contacted you.
- Corruption, fraud or misconduct allegations involving directors or senior management.
- A major customer, lender or regulator has expressed concern.
- It is on WhatsApp in a form you did not create.
- Anything touches race, religion or royalty (at least Level 3).
- You are not sure.

> A level is a working assumption, reviewed every hour. Upgrade quickly, downgrade slowly. The numeric thresholds in the playbook are examples; the Board should approve yours.

Escalation clocks

Playbook Sections 2.3, 5, 7.4

FROM	TO	BY
Anyone	Head of function and Head of Comms / CoSec	Immediately
Comms / CoSec	Core Five	15 min
Core Five	CMT convened (L3–4)	60 min
Crisis Lead	Chair and ARC Chair	60 min (L3); immediately (L4)

> These are defaults. Calibrate them to your company and have the Board approve them.

REGULATORY CLOCKS TO START (VERIFY WITH COUNSEL)

REGULATOR	WINDOW
Bursa, material information	Immediately
PDPC, personal data breach	72 hours
Affected individuals	Up to 7 days after PDPC notice
NACSA, NCII entities only	6 hours, supplement by day 14
DOSH, workplace fatality	Immediate notice, written report within 7 days

Windows come from secondary sources and are not checked against official texts.

The Five-Line statement

Playbook Section 11.1

LINE	PURPOSE	FRAME
1 Acknowledge	What happened. Verified facts only.	“[Company] confirms that [fact] occurred at [place] on [date/time].”
2 Care	Who is affected and how we are helping.	“Our first priority is [people]. We are [support actions].”
3 Action	What we are doing now and who is involved.	“We have [contained / stopped / notified]. [Authority] is involved.”
4 Accountability	What we will find out and report.	“We will establish the cause. We will share what we learn.”
5 Next	When and where the next update comes.	“We will update at [time] on [channel].”

Never state a cause, a number or a date you cannot verify. Never speculate. One spokesperson. Bursa first if the matter is material.
